All books are First Editions, First Printings, unless otherwise indicated. Payment in Swiss Francs (CHF) into our Swiss bank account is preferred. All books remain the property of the seller until paid for in full. Postage is extra.

In the first part of this catalogue we offer some graphic novels in English. Most of these novels were listed in an article entitled “50 Essential Graphic Novels” and published on AbeBooks on the 7th of November 2013. You can access the article at:

http://www.abebooks.com/books/features/50-essential-graphic-novels-b.shtml?cm_mmc=nl-_nl-_C131104-h00-comicsBM-141211HV-_01cta&abersp=1

Items with an * are currently being offered on AbeBooks.

In the second part of the catalogue you will find some comics. In the third part we list a selection of German works with a connection to Switzerland, Zürich in particular.

In all fairness: a lot of the chosen novels are beautifully produced and wonderful to behold. The writing, however, lacks depth, wording and imagination. We find that only few of the works offered here succeed in combining words and illustrations successfully, which is a pity.

However, vast possibilities for improvement are out there. And meanwhile we have – thank God:

*45. Bastokalypse. Zürich: Scheidegger & Spiess, 2010. First Edition, First Printing. A fine copy, which is signed, dated and with a beautiful illustration created by both artists on the front. This stunning volume represents the culmination of a decade-long collaboration between the two Swiss graphic artists, M. S. Bastian and Isabelle L. Bastokalypse reproduces the thirty-two large black-and-white canvases of their monumental graphic sequence of the same name; together the panels tell the story of the apocalypse and the end of the world that amalgamates images inspired by a wide range of eras and art examples, including medieval Tuscan mosaics, renaissance panels, baroque engravings, Meiji-era Japanese prints, and contemporary graphic novels. The resulting work is alternately terrifying and amusing, reflecting the horrors and surprises of the world as it they reach us day by day through the media. The thirty-two parts of this 168-foot long painting are gathered in an oversized sixty-four-plate concertina folder with an essay on apocalyptic motifs by art critic Konrad Tobler printed on the verso. The result is as much an art object as it is a book, as unusual and thrilling in its own way as the images it contains. CHF 450
